Happening in April

In April, you'll notice a new event on the calendar: Creator Space. This is the same crafting experience you love, just with a new name and format. Early in the month, we'll begin a craft, and later in the month you'll have time to finish it if you didn't complete it during the first session. You can also choose materials to start an "on your own" project. Please access the craft closet only when Caitlin is present to check out materials. It's also baseball season again! Sign up to attend an OKC Comets game on April 8. On April 24, you can attend a Clean Living Expo event at Francis Tuttle. We're also planning a trip to the Cowboy Hall of Fame on April 28 for their new immersive exhibit. Don't forget to pick up a book this month, too. Book Club will be reading The Borrowed Life of Frederick Fife by Anna Johnston in April, and Sensible Shoes by Sharon Garlough Brown in May.
