

For Residents, By Residents!

Bradford Village residents gather weekly for several programs. These were started out of common interest and are kept going by dedicated residents like you! If you haven't joined any of these programs, check them out!

Men's Coffee meets on Tuesday mornings. It's a chance for the guys to get together to discuss current events, hobbies, and life in general. The Classics Women's Group meets on Wednesdays. They select topics to discuss and also generate some good feeling in the community by sending cards to fellow residents or resident family members. And, don't forget that on Wednesdays after lunch, anyone is welcome to join the Dominoes crew for a game in the library.

Bradford Book Club

The next meeting of the Bradford Book Club is Tuesday, July 13 at 10:30am in the Community Center library. July's selection is Kristin Hannah's The Four Winds.

Elsa Wolcott is a woman trying to raise two children on a farm in the Great Plains during the Dust Bowl following the Great Depression; it's a powerful story about the strength and resilience of women and the bond between mother and daughter.

The book selection for August is TBD.
