Guest Dayna Brown

The 2017 novel Killers of the Flower Moon by David Grann investigates a series of murders of wealthy Osage people that took place in Osage County in the early 1920s—after big oil deposits were discovered beneath their land. Now, Martin Scorsese is turning the acclaimed novel into a film. Dayna Brown, costume director for the OKC Ballet and Winnie Hall’s granddaughter, has been working on the movie set as a costumer! Dayna will share her experience of working on this incredible film, Nov. 2 at 12:15pm.

Grateful for...

Grateful for little ones...

...and furry ones!

When you think about what you’re grateful for, family, grandkids, and pets come to mind! Share what you’re grateful for this holiday season with your friends and neighbors. On Friday, Nov. 19, bring photos of kids, grandkids, or furry friends to the community center. BV will provide a display board for you to post your pics! (Please put your name on the back of the photos.)
