

Happening in January

Fannie Farmer first published “The Boston Cooking-School Cook Book” on January 7, 1896. This Jan.7, bring your favorite recipes to share with the community - salads, soups, and desserts work well for sharing! Mike will try to incorporate your recipes into our lunch menus! Monday, January 17th is Martin Luther King, Jr. day. Watch “The March” in Commons West at 2:00pm. This 2013 documentary, narrated by Denzel Washington, is about the renowned and historic 1963 March on Washington.

On Tuesday, January 25, travel to the Oklahoma History Center! See exhibits about our state’s history, including the Oklahomans and Space exhibit! Depart at 12:30pm, return approximately 3:30pm. Cost is $5.

Welcome 2022! It’s hard to believe we’re over two decades into the 21st century. As we welcome the new year, enjoy these quotes of encouragement!

Kindness, kindness, kindness. I want to make a New year’s prayer, not a resolution. I’m praying for courage. ~ Susan Sontag, American writer

To improve is to change; to be perfect is to change often. ~ Winston Churchill

You are never too old to reinvent yourself. ~ Steve Harvey, American television personality

For last year’s words belong to last year’s language. And next year’s words await another voice. ~ T.S. Eliot

Seamsters Needed!

The BV production is in full swing with rehearsals, and it is time to start working on costumes. Several residents who sew had offered to help with costumes. Fittings are the first week in January. On January 6/7th, Whitney and Caitlin will have assignments. If you are willing to help with hemming and minor repairs, please sign up on the bulletin board!
