

Happening in April

Brighten your home or patio this spring with macrame-cord rainbows. Learn how to create yours on April 6. On April 7, ladies are invited to share coffee and pastries with Donna and Caitlin! Later that day, join us for a showing of the musical South Pacific, which debuted on Broadway on April 7, 1949. You can't pass up a chance to fly a kite in the spring; join the AL for a kite-flying afternoon on April 8 (location TBA.) During lunch on April 19, learn about Winnie Hall's business Classic Threads that she ran for years with her good friend Tommy Atchison and enjoy a fashion show of some of their styles! Make sure to sign up soon for a trip to the Muskogee Azalea Festival, scheduled for April 20 (in the event of inclement weather, we will try to reschedule the trip for the following week). Have a wonderful April!

Bradford Book Club

Book Club meets the second Tuesday of each month. Books can be found at the BV library, the Edmond public library, Amazon, or wherever you like to get your books! Everyone is welcome to join.
